

1

A diagram showing a branching structure. A central vertical line has a node at the top labeled '1'. A horizontal line branches off to the right from the vertical line at a node labeled '2'. A horizontal line branches off to the left from the vertical line at a node labeled '3'. The lines are thick and black, and the nodes are solid black circles.

2

3

